

Battle of Burton Bridge

Here's our very own Ed Kovac taking part in the Battle of Burton Bridge competition at Burton Archery club. This competition is held with traditional bows and Ed achieved the overall highest score. What makes this even more remarkable is that there is no use of a sight on the bow and the distance is a whopping 140 yards!

Well done Ed, again putting Newark Castle Archers on the map.

